The Chatsworth Challenge Walk

Sunday 9th September 2012

8.30am start for everybody

The walk is entirely set in the National Park and is a challenging walk containing 3500 feet of ascent and with an 11 hour time limit. The walk starts and finishes in Baslow, (only a mile from the renowned Chatsworth House) covering 25 miles of mixed terrain, including the Derbyshire gritstone edges, Eyam and Longstone moors, as well as dales in both the dark (gritstone) Peak and the White (limestone) areas. The later stage of the walk includes part of the Monsal trail before finishing through the grounds of Chatsworth House.

Upon receiving your entry application we shall forward acknowledgement (including your Entry number) full details and final instructions which will include a sketch map of Baslow with start and other information fully marked together with comprehensive route and checkpoint details.

We shall be providing

Toast, preserves and beverages available before the start
Hot pie and pea meal and cake at the finish (with beverages)

Drinks and biscuits en route

Certificates for all finishers

An embroidered Chatsworth Challenge Walk badge

Results information posted to you after the event.
